

Basic Raptor Rehabilitation Workshop May 2-5, 2017

Register online at: <http://tinyurl.com/BRRehab2017>

This four-day intensive workshop provides rehabilitators and veterinarians with practical knowledge of the steps involved in raptor rehabilitation. There is a limit of 20 registrants.

Registrants must be a currently licensed rehabilitator with a minimum of two (2) years rehabilitation experience OR a licensed veterinarian with a strong interest in rehabilitation.

Schedule

May 2

- Avian anatomy and physiology/necropsy
- The Raptor Center's raptor handling protocols (hands-on)
- Basic physical exam
- Basic lab sampling and its importance
- Triage and emergency care

May 3

- Bandaging/physical therapy (hands-on)
- Fluid therapy
- Common raptor injuries and diseases
- Reconditioning – principles and practice

May 4

- Medical care (hands-on)
- Reconditioning (hands-on)
- Housing
- Diet
- Captive management (foot, feather, and beak care)

May 5

- Medical care (hands-on)
- Reconditioning (hands-on)
- Pre-release assessment (flight evaluation, live training, etc)
- Release planning (location, time of day, time of year)
- Orphan care

- For further transportation and cancellation information visit our website at:
TheRaptorCenter.org >
Training > Classes and Workshops
- For more information contact Lori Arent at arent@umn.edu